3. How to get to Charité Campus Mitte (CCM)

CONNECTIONS TO REACH CCM

CCM is located in central Berlin right next to Berlin Central Station, which means it is very easy to reach. Please note that the meeting will take place at Charité Campus Mitte and not any other Charité campuses.

The public transport stations surrounding CCM are as follows:

Bus: 147 Bus route drops you right outside the campus, other close bus routes are 142 and 245.

Tram: M5, M8, and M10 all stop close to CCM, this will require a 2 minute walk to reach the campus.

Underground: The U5 from the Bundestag is the closest metro station, with a 9 minute walk to reach the campus. Followed by the U6 from the Naturkundemuseum, with a 10 minute walk to reach the campus.

Overground: S1, S2, S25, S26 from Oranienburger str. S-bahn station, with an 18 minute walk.

Pricing of public transport:

There is only one type of public transport ticket in Berlin that covers all modes of transport. The only difference in tickets is which zone you travel in. Tickets can be bought on every underground and overground platform. When travelling from the airport to central you must buy a ticket that covers zones A B C (4.40E). Once within the city, you only need a ticket covering zone A B (3.50E).

Alternatively, you can buy tickets via an app: BVG Tickets Berlin
